

Sturgis Library Archives
Town and Local History Collection

Church & Sermon Collection
MS. 115

Extent: 2 boxes

Scope and Content Note: The collection consists of historical sketches, sermons, and other materials related to local churches. Major local names include Joseph Lewis, Daniel Davis, Edmund Quincy Sewall, Rev. Oakes Shaw, John Mellen, Sarah Alden, John Wills, and others. Box 3 contains the records of the Barnstable Baptist churches, including miscellaneous histories, financial records, deeds, member's lists, and minutes of meetings.

Historical note: The Third Baptist Church was housed in the building on the corner of Route 6A and Rendezvous Lane in Barnstable Village that is now known as Tales of Cape Cod.

Related Material: Sturgis Library has an extensive selection of sermons in the Lothrop collection, located in the Hooper Room.

Access: Unrestricted. Credit Sturgis Library archives for publication.

Acquisition: Some items donated by "Miss Hooper." The volumes of records of the Barnstable Baptist Church were donated by the Barnstable Historical Society and Rev. Stephen Trimbball in 2022.

Processed by: Lucy Loomis, 2014. Recataloged and items added in 2022.

Box 2

Partial Volume IV of "The Practical Works of the Late Reverend and Pious Mr. Richard Baxter" [Originally 4 volumes, published 1707]

This volume has dozens of handwritten names, signatures and inscriptions written in the margins, most dating from the early 1800s. It is unclear who did the writing, or if it was the work of several people. It could have been used like a signature book. Writing in the volume includes names, IOUs, religious verses, vital records, and phrases. An index to the inscriptions accompanies the volume.
