Historical and Biographical Information: According to the forward of this manuscript, Pond Village is traditionally defined as that community of families that have homes along a stretch of Route 6A in Barnstable Village from Lothrop Hill Cemetery in the east to the western end of the Village marked by Barnstable-West Barnstable Elementary School. A pond, variously known as Coggin's or Hinckley's or Great Pond, forms the midpoint of Pond Village. It includes the homes along Scudder's Lane and Allyn's Way which branch off Route 6A.
